Pool board: Boo in the park will be held 10/21/17 3pm-5pm. Food donation to Helping Hands is cost of admission. Pool closing now scheduled for 10/30/17. Pool has been painted, painting tables and playground is being done. Ticket for gun raffle on sale. Spouting need repaired at pavilions.

Bob Easterday asked about status of BPA salary request. Doug was under the understanding Cyperski has discussed with them converting to hours. He only spoke with Joe. BPA was given copy of e mail from Cyperski to Doug. Cyperski will be asked to contact Bob directly and get resolved so that council can take action if needed.

Mr. McDade, questioned status on cleanup of the following properties:

1. Lahmers 9430 Main St, Cyperski was working on with Mike.

2. Locust Street, property in foreclosure with Stark County and will eventually be sold for taxes. Process is very slow to complete. Property is a safety hazard.
3. McKinley, Mike reported resident is cooperation and has made a lot of progress, feels if still not acceptable to Mr. McDade they should meet with property owner together with mayor and discuss.
4. Wagon shed property letter has been sent to property owner. Renter has threatened Mike already so issue is now in the hands of Mayor and Cyperski.

Mr. McDade felt village ordinances should be equally applied to all residence and enforced to have properties cleaned up. He also complimented ball league for cleanup of Farber fields.
