Doug,

Tom needs to get you the number so we can bill the bridge contractor.

Tom hasn't had any success with the trucking company who damaged the electrical wire. He is forwarding me the information for me to contact them.

The mechanic only serviced the backhoe and not all three pieces of equipment. I'm told he is expected to provide a quote to service the dump truck and the mini excavator.

With all that is happening plus a vacation it might be best to move forward with the meeting.

Called to order at 7:00PM
